City Hold 'Embug.
A story is told of an eminent legal practitioner who was afflicted with difficulty in pronouncing his aspirates many years ago. He had a particular dislike to a late lord chancellor who had published a book of hymns. Upon seeing his rival enter the court on one occasion he was overheard to mutter, "Ere 'e comes, 'umming 'is 'ymn tunes; 'oly hold 'umbug, 'ow I do 'ate 'im!"—Westminster Gazette.

For All Practical Purposes.
"My friend," said the traveler with the skullcap, putting his head out of the car window as the train stopped at a desolate looking village, "what is the name of this dried up, God forsaken place?"

"That's near enough," responded the dejected citizen who was leaning against the little red shaft that served as the railway station. "Let it go at that."—Chicago Tribune.

All Put On.
"I don't like the stage manager," said the soubrette petulantly. "He's always making us learn some new popular song."
"What of that?" asked the first comedian.

"Oh," answered the soubrette, "I hate a man who puts on so many airs!"—New York Press.

Expansive Ohio.
Teacher—Jimmie Green, you may rise. Can you give us the geographical boundaries of Ohio.
Jimmie—No ma'am. You can't catch me on any such game as that. Since last November Ohio hasn't had any boundaries.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Dramatic.
Manager—Everything set for that farmyard scene?
Property Man—Everything but the hen.
Once more the eternal feminine and the exigencies of realism were in direct conflict.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

His Idea of It.
The Giddy Young Thing—What is that proverb about there being no marrying in heaven?
The Chronic Bachelor—Fools rush in where angels fear to tread.—Indianapolis Journal.

Appropriately Named.
"What made you advertise your vaudeville show as 'Elizabethan'?" They didn't have such things in that age."
"You see, I've got five girls named Lizzie in the ballet."—Chicago Record.

The Deacon's Alarm.
The New Minister—Six hours' sleep is enough for any man.
The Absentminded Deacon—Good gracious! You don't preach as long as that, do you?—Yonkers Statesman.

Before Their Time.

Wearry Raggles—Say, pard, me and you was born before our time.
Wandering Willie—How do yer finger that?
Wearry Raggles—I've bin readin de papers for awhile back, an I see de experts agree dat by de next century de whomin will be doin all de work in dis world.—New York Sunday World.

Citizens Attention.

These are days of considerable anxiety and perplexity to all who have possessions or other interests in the Republic of Hawaii, and it is time that our citizens came to a mutual understanding on several important issues. The prospects for Annexation appear at present vague and indistinct, and our destiny cannot be foretold with certainty. There are those, also, who still fondly cling to the hope of a return to the old order of things, and who cannot be persuaded otherwise, yet this outlook appears far more hazy than that of Annexation even to the most hopeful disciples of the Monarchy. But, fortunately, in the midst of all this uncertainty there is solace in the fact that Buffalo Beer has come to stay and that patrons of all sorts and opinions may equally share the benefits of its invigorating and sustaining properties. We are moreover assured that this favorite brew will continue to be dispensed as heretofore at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons.

City Carriage Co., J. S. Andrade, manager. If you want a back with good horse and careful driver ring up Telephone 113, corner of Fort and Merchant streets. Back at all hours. *
